

Retreats

UCSF Helen Diller Family
Comprehensive Cancer Center

The UCSF Patient and Family Cancer Support Center is the hub of support, information and resources for people with cancer at the Helen Diller Family Comprehensive Cancer Center. Learn more about UCSF's supportive care programs at <https://cancer.ucsf.edu/support/crc/patient-support-center>

The Cancer Support Center at Mission Bay is located at 1825 4th St., 1st Floor, Room M-1210. The Cancer Support Center at Mt. Zion is located at 1600 Divisadero St., 1st Floor, Room B-101.

The complete list of Patient Education Resource Pages is available to view at <http://cancer.ucsf.edu/support/crc/patient-education-resources>

Retreats

Anal Cancer Foundation (ACF)

The Anal Cancer Foundation is dedicated to empowering anal cancer patients and accelerating prevention and treatment methods that eliminate this disease

Website: <https://www.analcancerfoundation.org>

Camp Māk-a-Dream

Māk-a-Dream retreats are a mix of camp fun and serious conversation. Activities range from physical challenges to art therapy, yoga and life-planning. The camp is located near Gold Creek, Montana. The camp is provided cost-free to participants. Websites:

www.campdream.org or <https://www.campdream.org/camps-programs/young-adult-conference> Phone Number: 406-549-5987

Casting for Recovery

A two-and-a-half day fly-fishing retreat for women with breast cancer. Casting for Recovery provides the retreat at no cost and all gear and supplies will be provided.

Website: <http://castingforrecovery.org> Phone Number: 888-553-3500

Commonweal Cancer Help Program

A week-long retreat for people with cancer in Bolinas, California. The healing program includes therapist-led sessions, massage, yoga, meditation, deep relaxation, imagery work, and a vegetarian diet. Limited to 8 or 9 participants. Cost is $2,460; need-based scholarships offered.

Website: www.commonweal.org/program/cchp Phone Number: 415-868-9780

Epic Experience

Epic Experience offers a free, week-long outdoor experiences in Colorado to any person diagnosed with cancer. Experiences vary depending on the season and location. All are welcome from age 18 years and up.

Website: <https://www.epicexperience.org> Phone Number: 855-650-9907

First Descents

First Descents is a multi-day adventure program featuring white-water kayaking, rock climbing or surfing. The program is designed for all young adult cancer survivors (either during or after treatment) ages 18-45. Cost is free to participants. Air fare is not covered, but travel scholarships may be available. Programs take place in various parts of the country. Website: <https://firstdescents.org> Phone Number: 303-945-2490

Healing Odyssey

Three-day retreats for women in Running Spring, California. Healing Odyssey provides its programs regardless of ability to pay. Participants can participate in activities such as meditation, yoga, forest bathing, dancing and karaoke and sound healing.

Website: <https://healingodyssey.net> Phone Number: 949-707-1710

Me-One Foundation

Me-One's main program is Camp Wieser, which is a three-day, no-cost to retreat for those diagnosed with cancer and in need of a place of joy and relaxation. Up to five family members or close friends are allowed to come along. Located in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Website: www.me-onefoundation.org Phone Number: 916-784-2267

Reel Recovery

Reel Recovery conducts free fly-fishing retreats for men recovering from cancer. Combines fly fishing instruction and "courageous conversations"; provides men an opportunity to share stories, learn a new skill, and form friendships. The retreat is free of charge. Website: <http://reelrecovery.org> Phone Number: 800-699-4490

This information is intended to offer credible and reliable education resources for patients who want to learn more about their diagnosis. It is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all resources available.