Websites

American Cancer Society (ACS) – Anal Cancer

At the American Cancer Society, we're on a mission to free the world from cancer. Until we do, we'll fund and conduct research, share expert information, support patients, and spread the word about prevention.

All so you can live longer — and better. Website: <https://www.cancer.org/cancer/anal-cancer.html>

National Cancer Institute: Office of Cancer Survivorship

OCS is part of the NCI Division of Cancer Control and Population Sciences. The office works to enhance the quality and length of survival of people diagnosed with cancer, and support research addressing the long- and short-term effects of cancer. Website: <https://cancercontrol.cancer.gov/ocs>

National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship

NCCS advocates for quality cancer care for all people touched by cancer. They work at the policy level and empower cancer survivors. Survivor resources include the award-winning “Cancer Survival Toolbox” as well as information about communicating with your doctor, employment rights, and health insurance issues.
