

TOBACCO.

IT'S ABOUT A BILLION LIVES WORLDWIDE.

UCSF's annual tobacco symposium

Friday, February 1, 2019, 8:00am - 12:30pm | Cole Hall, 513 Parnassus, San Francisco

KEYNOTE: The WHO Framework Convention on Tobacco Control: An International Treaty to Counter a Transnational Industry
Vera Luiza da Costa e Silva, MD, PhD, Head of the Convention Secretariat, WHO Framework Convention on Tobacco Control

Using apps, maps, and stories to understand tobacco use disparities

Julia McQuoid, PhD, MSc | Postdoctoral Fellow, Center for Tobacco Control Research and Education

Tobacco cessation as a pathway out of homelessness

Maya Vijayaraghavan, MD, MAS | Assistant Professor, Division of General Internal Medicine (ZSFG)

No To Tobacco

Tasha "Sixfootah The Poet"

Poster session on the range of tobacco research at UCSF

Toxicant exposure and effects from electronic and combustible cigarettes

Gideon St. Helen, PhD | Assistant Professor of Medicine, Division of Clinical Pharmacology

Trends and Tales of flavored tobacco use among young people

Shannon Watkins, PhD | Postdoctoral Fellow, Center for Tobacco Control Research and Education

CLOSING: Catherine Gilliss, PhD, RN, FAAN | Dean and Professor, UCSF School of Nursing

For more information, please contact Sheila.Quimpo@ucsf.edu or call 415-502-6341.

This event, co-presented by the UCSF Helen Diller Family Comprehensive Cancer Center, is part of a series of symposia highlighting cancer research on Parnassus. For more information, please visit <http://cancer.ucsf.edu/parnassus-symposia>.